

THEODORE INDUSTRIAL PORT

Offshore Inland offers mobilization, staging, storage, equipment assembly modification, integration and testing, project installation and topside vessel repairs at this location with the following advantages:

LONG.: 30°31'26.47"N
LAT. 88° 5'48.81"W

The described deep-water facility is perfectly positioned to support the Central and Eastern Gulf offshore projects and assets.

- Over 1700' of deepwater, reinforced steel dockside (Low tide depth of 35'),
- Up to 5 acres adjacent gravel laydown area with available lighting and security fencing
- Short and long term equipment storage available
- Additional 10 acres of lay down, fabrication, and storage available just off dock
- Multiple sized cranes are available, including full heavy lift capabilities
- All crafts available to support short or long term mobilizations, repairs, or vessel conversions
- Short pilotage from central gulf Mobile Sea Buoy (2-3 hours)
- Project team office trailers available at dock side,
- Regularly handle large Subsea Mobilizations and Rig Projects at facility
- 10,000 to 20,000 sq ft covered storage with 30ft hook height available
- Short term wharfage available
- Across the channel from Aker Flex Spool Base and Technips Rigid Spool Base
- Local harbor tugs, pilots, barges, and fueling
- Approximately 5.5 miles from Interstate
- Secure and gated facility

OFFSHORE INLAND WILL SUPPORT THESE ABOVE PROJECTS WITH THE FOLLOWING ONSITE SUPPORT:

- With onsite coordinators adhering to the highest level of environmental and safety standard
- Quality control team following the strictest Class and Workmanship control
- Project management design and engineering services
- In house full compliments of craftsman including certified welders, fitters, mechanics, etc.
- 24hr security
- Project offices
- Procurement and logistics support